

HelpOut

Connecting high school students with volunteer opportunities, summer programs, and internships

Mass Academy of Math & Science at WPI

Problem & Need

- Many HS students are eager to volunteer, learn through summer programs, or work at internships but don't know where to start.
- There a strong need for a mobile platform where HS students can search, find, and apply for volunteer opportunities, summer programs, or internships that interest them.
- Unequal access to opportunities for many students.
Therefore, there is a need to democratize this process.

Target Audience & Goal

HelpOut is an effective, intuitive, and inclusive mobile application platform to help all high school students search, find, and apply for volunteer opportunities, summer programs, and internships and help organizations market their opportunities to a broad high school audience.

Importance of Extracurriculars

Community Service

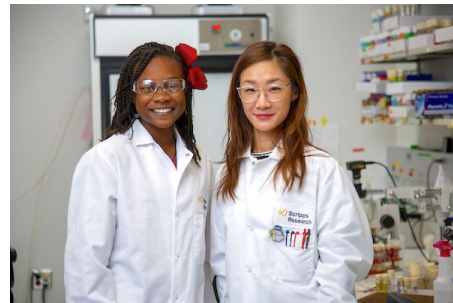

- Set students apart in college app / job recruitment
- Helps narrow down a college major
- Allows students to explore career paths

Summer Programs

- Spark student's interest
- Gain confidence to succeed in work atmosphere
- Build connections with life-long mentors

Internships

- Hands-on experience
- Help prepare for future college internship
- Increase chances of a full-time position in the company
